Additional information about Professional Arts Specialty Pharmacy

We know that specialty-lite products present unique challenges, yet it's an under-served segment of the pharmacy market. Manufacturers need a non-traditional pharmacy model at a price they can afford to help improve patient access, affordability, and adherence challenges.

That's where Professional Arts fits in.

We deliver the enhanced services and data the industry has come to expect in specialty pharmacy while using emerging technologies and operational efficiencies to keep it affordable for lower price-point drugs.
