Additional information about BILH Specialty Pharmacy

Beth Israel Lahey Health Specialty Pharmacy makes the treatment of difficult diseases as simple, safe, and effective as possible. We ensure our patients have access to their specialty medication, addressing financial barriers and optimizing therapy. This includes discussion with our patients on how specialty medications should be taken, monitored, and stored. We combine caring, personalized service with exceptional clinical knowledge. Our team of specialty clinical pharmacists and pharmacy liaisons work with our patients and clinics across the system including practice areas of rheumatology, neurology, hematology/oncology, infectious diseases, allergy and many more. This multidisciplinary approach results in a comprehensive, custom plan of care for our patients.
