What is your organization's mission/ vision?

At Bass, Berry & Sims, delivering exceptional work is a critical part of what makes us successful. We stand apart because we all respect the contributions that our people make to the firm. We create an inclusive environment where everyone can do complex work and give their all while being themselves, irrespective of role or background. Leaving a legacy for future generations matters to us, so we always go above and beyond to exceed expectations.

What else would you like people to know about Bass, Berry & Sims?

At Bass, Berry & Sims, we have one of the largest Specialty Pharmacy & Pharmaceuticals Practices in the country. Led by industry veterans who have experience as both in-house general counsel and outside counsel for national pharmacy, pharma service and pharmacy benefit management companies, our multi-disciplinary team serves as operational and transactional counsel to a majority of the nation's largest specialty pharmacies.
